Re: U.S. v. Curtis Pope, 1:10-cr-00675 (S.D. NY)

Dear Judge Holwell:

Curtis Pope, who lives in Florida, is scheduled to surrender on August 22, 2011 before 2:00 p.m. The Bureau of Prisons, although having received his case, has not yet designated him to a proper facility because his case has been forwarded to the Office of Medical Designation. Because of that, he has been directed to surrender to the U.S. Marshall Service at Pearl Street.

We request that his surrender date be adjourned until September 19, 2011, at which time we expect a designation to have been made.

AUSA Arlo Devlin-Brown does not oppose this request.

Thank you for your consideration.
